Trainer Profile – Sridhar

Profile

- Sridhar is an accomplished practitioner in IT Services with over 25 years of experience in BI / DW, Analytics & Information Management Practice areas.

- Microsoft Certified Data Science Professional who is passionate about learning and evangelizing Data Science.

- He played leadership roles for large Indian IT firms as well as niche US based firms.

- Led practices that serviced global clients. His responsibilities included incubating new capabilities and promoting the services portfolio among the Clients and the sales teams.

- He attributes his success in these roles to the teams which were established with close attention to hiring, learning culture, periodic orientation and continuous improvement initiatives.

- He shares his experiences and learning through Training Sessions and Consulting Assignments for Enterprises and academic institutions in topics like Data Sciences, Machine Learning and Enterprise Transformation Initiatives.

Educational Qualifications

- Srinivasan holds a MBA from IIM and BE from NIT